1. The Canada-United States Law Institute. The Niagara International Moot Court Competition (the Competition) is sponsored by the Canada-United States Law Institute (the Institute or CUSLI). The Institute is a bi-national, not-for-profit, multi-disciplinary entity jointly founded in 1976 and owned and continuously operated by Case Western Reserve University School of Law located in Cleveland, Ohio, USA and the Faculty of Law, University of Western Ontario located in London, Ontario, Canada. The Institute serves as the administrative home for the Competition. 2. The Competition Director. The Institute annually appoints a law student to preside as the Competition Director. The Competition Director has authority for the administration of the Competition under the guidance of the Institute's professional staff. The administration of the Competition includes, but is not limited to: (1) setting the Competition Schedule; (2) promulgating the Official Rules; (3) approving the Niagara Problem; (4) recruiting and registering participants; (5) distributing information to participants, graders, and judges; (6) selecting the Semi-Final and Final Round judges; (7) aggregating scores; (8) settling disputes; and (9) otherwise assisting the host schools with the Competition.

3. The Host Schools. Case Western Reserve University School of Law and the University of Western Ontario Faculty of Law serve as the host schools for the Niagara International Moot Court Competition. The Host Schools, or their assigns, bear responsibility for the authoring of the problem and the bench brief. The Host Schools further bear responsibility for securing preliminary round judges and supplying a list of their names and addresses to the Competition Director for assignment. Additionally, the Host Schools are required to obtain student bailiffs for the Competition and promote the Competition.

4. Final Authority. The Competition Director, upon consultation with the Canada-United States Law Institute's professional staff, reserves the right to amend or change these rules and to make all decisions regarding any aspect of the Competition. Any such decisions made by the Competition Director will be final and binding on the participants.

B. Forum.

The Competition shall address a fictional dispute between the United States and Canada. The dispute shall be heard before the International Court of Justice unless otherwise approved by the Competition Director.

C. The Nature of the Competition.

The Competition shall consist of two stages: (1) the written advocacy stage; and (2) the oral advocacy stage.

1. The Written Advocacy Stage. The written advocacy stage requires participating teams to file written submissions (collectively the "Memorials") with the Competition Director addressing a fictional legal problem (the "Niagara Problem"). The Institute then circulates the written Memorials to individuals ("Memorial Graders") for scoring.

2. The Oral Advocacy Stage. The oral advocacy stage requires the participating teams to appear before a panel of individuals ("Judges") and argue the positions generally presented in the Memorials. The Judges thereafter evaluate the advocacy skills of the participating teams.

3. Scoring and Awards. Scoring of the written and oral advocacy stages occurs in accordance with the rules established herein. The Institute presents team and individual awards to those demonstrating a mastery of the advocacy skills with the highest award being the Niagara Cup.

D. Team Eligibility and Registration.

1. Team Eligibility. All accredited law schools in the United States and Canada are eligible to participate in the Competition. Every team shall be sponsored by a faculty member (including adjunct), and, or, an organization within each school internally recognized as having authority to sponsor events sharing similar characteristics to the Competition (i.e. Moot Court Board, International Law Students Association, etc.), unless otherwise approved by the Competition Director.

2. Registration.

a. Potential participants shall receive a registration form from the Competition Director that shall specify the registration fee/deposit in United States currency, and the deadline for receipt of the form. The registration fee for the 2010-11 Niagara International Moot Court Competition is US$700.00. Once completed and sent by the participating law school and received by the Competition Director by the date established in the Competition Schedule, the registration form shall serve as the law school's notice of intent to participate, and shall be accompanied by a non-refundable deposit in an amount to be designated by the Competition Director on the registration form. All registration fees/deposits are payable by check, credit card, or money order. Cash payments will not be accepted. Checks and money orders shall be made payable to "The Canada-United States Law Institute."

Teams shall provide the Competition Director with the name of the Faculty Advisor, Faculty Coach (if not a member of the full or adjunct faculty), Student Team Coordinator (if applicable), and a designated Team Contact person, with corresponding addresses, telephone and facsimile numbers, and electronic mail addresses at the time of registration. The Competition Director will address all correspondence exclusively to the Team Contact person. Notice to the Team Contact person constitutes notice to all Team members. The Competition Director will receive enquiries exclusively from the Faculty Advisor Coach and, or Team Contact person.

A person shall not be a member of a Team if that person has been admitted to the bar or admitted to legal practice in any jurisdiction.

4. Faculty Advisor, Faculty Coach, and Student Team Coordinator/Coach. In addition to the two (2) to four (4) team members, each Team shall have an advisor (the "Faculty Advisor") that is a member of the participating law school's faculty or otherwise appointed by the faculty. 3. Participation by all Team members. Any combination of two (2) Team members, but no more than two team members, may participate in each Preliminary Round argument. However, each Team member must present at least once during the course of the Preliminary Rounds.

6. No Surrebuttal. No Surrebuttal by the Respondent shall be permitted.

15. Ex Parte Procedure. In the event a Team fails to appear for a scheduled Oral Advocacy stage round, the Competition Director may allow the round to proceed ex parte. The Competition Director shall wait a period of fifteen (15) minutes from the scheduled start of the Oral Advocacy Stage round prior to issuing the decision. The ex parte round shall proceed with the Team presenting before the Panel and the Panel scoring as if the absent Team had argued. The absent Team forfeits the round. In the event the Competition Director deems that the nonappearance was intentional and flagrant, the Competition Director may disqualify the Team from the Competition.

16. Recordings. The Host Schools and the Institute reserve the right to audio record, photograph, and, or video record the Oral Advocacy Stage and use such recordings, photographs and videos in promoting the Competition, including publication on the internet. Teams may agree in advance, and subject to the approval of the Competition Director, to allow audio-recordings, photographs, and video recordings of the Oral Advocacy Stage rounds.

In the Semifinal Round, the first seeded team will compete against the fourth seeded team; and the second seeded team will compete against the third seeded team.

3. Selection of Argument. The higher seeded team in any pairing may select which argument (Applicant or Respondent) that they will present in the Semifinal Round, or defer this selection to the opposing team.

5. Prior Viewing. Judges are prohibited from viewing a Team which they have viewed in a previous Oral Advocacy Stage round unless no Team member from the previous round will be presenting in the current round and the opposing Team consents. This rule shall not be construed to prevent preliminary general discussion of the issues with faculty or others before researching or writing the Memorials or preparation of oral argument. Nor shall it be construed to prevent the judging of a practice argument by faculty or others, or the giving of general critiques on such oral arguments by the judges.

B. No Team that has been eliminated from the Competition shall assist another Team.

IV. SCORING.

1. Memorial Graders.

a. Each Team shall provide the Competition Director with the name and contact information of a Memorial Grader for the Competition by the date established in the Competition Schedule.

b. A valid email address shall be supplied for the Memorial Grader, and the Memorial Grader must be willing to receive Memorials and communications from the Competition Director via email.

c. Failure to present the name and contact information of the Memorial Grader to the Competition Director by the date specified in the Competition Schedule will result in a ten-point penalty being assessed to the Team's Memorials.

d. The Memorial Graders may not otherwise participate in the Competition, including judging preliminary or practice rounds or coaching teams.

e. The Memorial Graders shall be knowledgeable in international law. Students may not serve as Memorial Graders unless approved by the Competition Director.

f. One-half of the Memorial Graders shall grade the Applicant Memorials; the remaining half shall grade the Respondent Memorials. Each grader may be responsible for grading a number of Memorials equal to the number of participating schools, unless the number of teams is excessive. Generally, Memorial Graders are responsible for six to eight Memorials.

2. Anonymity. All Memorials shall be assigned a pre-designated number by the Competition Director to assure anonymity during the grading process.

3. Factors. Each Memorial Grader shall receive a grading form from the Competition Director outlining the factors to be considered during the grading process. This form shall contain an average score so that each Memorial Grader has a median number by which to judge the quality of the individual Memorials. The factors to be considered are as follows, but the order in which they are listed is in no way indicative of their importance:

1. Legal substance.
2. Style, spelling, grammar, and form.
3. Use of authority and extent of research.
4. Knowledge of the facts.
5. Analysis of the issues involved.

7. Clarity and organization.
8. Persuasiveness.

- 9. Thoroughness.

4. Procedure. Each Memorial will be able to receive a maximum score of fifty (50) points. Every Memorial shall be graded at least three (3) times by three (3) separate Memorial Graders. Scores for each memorial will be averaged by the Competition Director to determine a final Memorial score.

5. Official Score-Keeper. The Competition Director or its assign(s) shall serve as the official score-keeper(s) for the Competition. Memorial scores shall be mailed, faxed, or emailed to the Competition Director prior to the Preliminary Rounds. The Competition Director shall be responsible for deducting points from the Memorial for violations of the rules.

6. Awards. The final Memorial score will be used to determine awards Nos. 1, 2, 3, and 4.

B. Oral Advocacy Stage - Preliminary Rounds.

1. Poise and courtroom manner.
2. Analysis of the issues.
3. Organization and logical presentation.

2. Procedure. Each Judge shall independently evaluate every Team member presenting before the Panel at the conclusion of each round and mark an accompanying score in the grading form. The Judges shall not at any time disclose the scores to the Teams. The Judges shall not decide a victor for the round.

3. Scoring. The Competition Director shall average the individual scores provided by each Judge to obtain a final oral argument score for each Team member. In the event of a two-judge panel, the Competition director shall average the two scores to obtain the third judge score and proceed according to the Rules. The Competition Director shall determine each Team's final score for the round by averaging the two individual Team members' final oral argument score. Thus: $(\text{Advocate \#1} + \text{Advocate \#2})/2$ will determine the total points for each round. Individual advocate scores will be retained for the Best Advocate award.

4. Designation of Applicant or Respondent Scores. 1. Selection. The eight Teams having the highest total score from the Preliminary Rounds and the Written Advocacy Stage, will compete in the Quarterfinal Round. Scores for entering into the Quarterfinal Rounds shall be computed as follows: Add the team final score from each Preliminary Round and multiply by .66. To that number add the Memorial scores used to calculate awards 1 through 4 multiplied by .33. The formula is as follows: (Preliminary Round ("PR") 1+PR2+PR3+PR4 + ...)(O.66)+(Final Memorial Applicant score + Final Memorial Respondent score)(O.33).

2. Advancement. At the close of the Quarterfinal Round, the Competition Director shall average the individual scores provided by each Judge to obtain a final oral argument score for each participating Team member. The Competition Director shall determine each Team's final score for the round by averaging the two individual Team members' final oral argument score. Thus: (Advocate #1 + Advocate #2)/2 will determine the total points for each round. The Team emerging with the highest total points from each pairing shall advance to the Semifinal Round. At no time during the Competition shall the Competition Director, the judges or any other person reveal the scores awarded in the Semifinal Round.

 - b. if the tied Teams have not faced each other, or in the event the head-to head match-up was inconclusive, but the teams both argued before the same judge(s) during different rounds during the preliminary round, then the team with the higher total points from any common judge(s) shall be ranked higher.
 - c. if neither (a) or (b) are applicable, then the team with the higher point differential from their preliminary rounds shall be ranked higher. The point differential shall be calculated as follows: (Total points scored in all four preliminary round pairings – total points scored by opponents in those same four preliminary round pairings)
2. If the Quarterfinal or Semifinal Round(s) results in a tie, the Competition Director shall reconvene the Panel and request that the Judges mutually select a Team to advance.
